You will be able to rent display cases directly from CSADA. A contract for display cases is included with this contract and is to be mailed directly to Donna Finegan, our show chairperson. No deposit is required.

2. The lessor, sponsor and/or managers are not responsible for any injury or loss that may be incurred during the entire period of the show, including the setup and removal periods. In the event of fire, accident or any other reason this show cannot be produced, the lease shall be immediately terminated and the lessee waives any and all claims for damages except for the return of said deposit paid.
3. Based on the quality of your merchandise and reputable business practice, you have been invited to participate in this show. The purpose of a careful dealer selection is to maintain quality, integrity and buyer confidence in the merchandise exhibited. Quality and merit of the item should be considered by the exhibitor for inclusion in the show. Only merchandise of high caliber suitable to the character of a fine quality show shall be exhibited.

If you have a question about an item, leave that piece at home.

4. The following guidelines are to be observed. All merchandise must be priced in dollars and cents. Tags must note any marriages of furniture, any furniture that is refinished, any new paint or repainting and any restorations exceeding 20%. This information from the price tag must also be included on the sales slip for all items. A sales slip with the selling dealer's name, address and phone number must accompany each sale.

All merchandise must be guaranteed to be as represented or a refund will be given by the selling dealer for merchandise returned to the dealer within thirty (30) days in the same condition as when it was sold. All merchandise must be for sale and so priced.
